

FIRE PREVENTION ORDER RESCINDED

United States Department the Interior
Bureau of Land Management

Effective 12:01 a.m. on Sunday, September 9, 2007, the following fire restrictions on BLM-managed lands in Utah are rescinded:

Pursuant to regulations of the Department of Interior, 43 CFR 9212 the following acts that were prohibited on the area, roads, and trails, described below are rescinded:

1. Setting, building, maintaining, attending, or using open fire of any kind, except campfires within approved fire pits and grills provided for in improved campgrounds, picnic areas, and permanently improved places of habitation, or except as otherwise authorized. Devices fueled by petroleum or LPG products are allowed in all locations.
2. Smoking, except within an enclosed vehicle, camp trailer, building, developed recreation site, or while stopped in an area at least three feet in diameter that is barren or cleared to mineral soil.

Area Description:

All Utah Bureau of Land Management lands now have these fire restrictions removed. This order supersedes all previous fire restriction orders within the state of Utah on BLM lands with the exception of firework restrictions, which remain in place.

Information concerning these fire restrictions may be obtained at www.utahfireinfo.gov and local Bureau of Land Management offices.
